Team Leopold IS LOOKING FOR THE FINEST BRAINPOWER IN CANADA.

No company can surpass our record of achievement and authority in the marketplace. We lead our industry; we create new standards of professionalism; we employ only the best and the brightest. Currently, we are seeking two additional

LAWYERS

At Leopold Property Consultants, we expect our lawyers to play an integral role in the hour-to-hour affairs of the company. In addition, attorneys at Leopold are required to work closely in tandem with our clients' counsel, and with Montreal law firms chosen by our company to service the substantial volume of business generated by our transactions. The successful candidates who will join us are members of the Quebec bar, and have from one (1) to four (4) years of experience in commercial practice. They are fluently bilingual, exceptionally skilled in both oral and written communication, and possess administrative and managerial ability. They will join an established legal department which already consists of four practising attorneys, and then undergo a period of meticulous training before assuming responsibility for a number of challenging business tasks and opportunities.

All applications for these positions should be addressed to: Maître M. Léonard.

We have already grown to be a mid-sized company. Having become the world leader in our field, we intend to dare to become a Fortune-500 service company. We set the pace in our industry, and are comfortable only at the top. We require a

DIRECTOR OF COMPUTER PROGRAMMING - M.I.S.

He/she is a highly organized and administratively competent computer professional with at least one university degree. The applicant must have experience in data base programming, and have full facility in the micro environment. Knowledge of optical scanners, ASCII conversion, dBase, and networking would be an asset. The successful candidate will manage an existing 4-member data programming and processing department. He/she will oversee and maintain a multi-user P.C. system, institute educational programs in the use of equipment for different levels of company personnel, and be responsible for the continuing development of our local area network. The leadership qualities of the successful candidate will prove instrumental to Leopold's accelerating and continued success.

All applications for this position should be addressed to: S. Tamas.

At Leopold Property Consultants we nurture and create excellence. We are already renowned for the superior training of our personnel. Presently, our educational department requires an additional full time

EDUCATOR

The qualified applicant holds a Bachelor's or Master's degree in Education, has experience in structuring curricula from scratch, and is currently teaching at a level equivalent to high school or CEGEP. He/she is eager to meet new challenges, and adapt with vigor to the corporate environment. Leopold Property Consultants is a firm that believes the training of its personnel must be done in-house to ensure the highest quality standards. The successful candidate will begin by learning our unique profession from bottom to top. Then he/she will assist one of Canada's most respected training and development specialists in devising new and additional curricula for all levels of company personnel, including fully customized programs and tailor-made educational manuals. This person's responsibilities will also include the administration of ongoing examinations to senior and mid-level personnel.

All applications for this position should be addressed to: P. Roberts.

Our reputation owes much to our aggressive style. At Leopold Property Consultants we are iconoclasts, inventors, idealists. We pride ourselves in being the best at everything we do. We require a

CREATIVE WRITER/RESEARCHER

He/she is an individual with at least one university degree who can demonstrate superb talent in written communication. Applicants will be called upon to prove that they can withstand the heat of a pressure-packed corporate environment, while producing exceptional work. The rapidity and creative quality of his/her response to this notice will play a key role in our screening process. The successful candidate will undergo a period of orientation in the company's affairs and business philosophy, and then be called upon to contribute to the quality of written documentation. He/she will join an established department headed by a published author, and will participate as a member of the team. His/her functions will be performed IN THE FRENCH LANGUAGE. In addition to creative writing, certain research and administrative tasks will be assigned to the writer. A background in advertising, journalism, or translation would be an asset, but is not a pre-requisite.

All applications for this position should be addressed to: M. Carin.

Canada has learned what teamwork means to hockey. At Leopold we believe the same rules apply to business. Our consultants work as part of a team. Due to our exceptional success with this concept, we require additional

CONSULTANTS

The individuals we foresee filling these positions will be seasoned professionals, able to interact comfortably with senior Canadian business management. The prime qualifications of our consultants rest in their intellectual prowess combined with their ability to persuade and convince. Such skills form our only product. We do not sell anything tangible; rather, we demonstrate to potential clients that our unique services are indispensable to a well run corporation. These persuasive capabilities then serve as our most vital tools in negotiating with landlords, as we advise and represent some of the largest users of space in North America. After three to five years of meticulous training and grooming, our consultants are expected to earn a steady six figure annual income.

All applications for these positions should be addressed to: H. McKeague.

ALL APPLICATIONS WILL BE ANSWERED IN WRITING.

Applicants for all of the above positions have gained honours in their respective fields, and are prepared to make a long term commitment to building a career. Please send your complete curriculum vitae in STRICTEST CONFIDENCE to:
